

SHAWT'S FORD.
The A. M. Whitman Relief Corps will meet at the first Wednesday in February at Mrs. Edith E. Bryant. Post members are invited to supper.

The farce at Grange Hall Saturday night was rather thinly attended. The first act of the storm and bad wind, but about $3.50 were taken which towards sheathing the dining hall. The actors who attended appeared to enjoy the entertainment very much.

There is to be a school exhibition at Chase school house next Saturday morning providing the drama at South Woodstock is not postponed on account of bad weather, if so the school exhibition will be on Monday evening and the drama on Tuesday evening, but if the weather is favorable the drama will be Thursday evening and the school exhibition on Friday evening.

There was a social party at H.H. Cushman's last week and over sixty were present.

The school closes in the Whitman District on Friday, and also in the Chase and Districts.

There is to be a picnic at the village school house one week from next Friday morning. CLANTON.

BUCKFIELD.
The somewhat mystical subject announced for the lecture at the Methodist church by Rev. Mr. Roberts of Norway, Massachusetts Nobles and the Chase progressed the name of Philip Robinson was evolved. Although the membership of Bishop Brooks is cheered by all ears of the good and true, there surely could have been no complaint if one were not known as Wendell had been mentioned. He who was opposed by church members for the cause of humanity, liberty, for any son of the old Bay State, hated and despised at one time, later the paterfamilias man.

Frederic Atwood has been to Boston to secure new furniture for the Old Fellows Hall.

James Foster of North Anson is in town. He is always glad to greet him of tooth and fame.

W. Whitton came Friday from Atlanta. His mother, widow of the late W. Whitton, is to remain at her old home for the present.

E. Robinson has lately purchased a house at Farmington, price $1,000. He is located at Wilton for $200. As he was passing through this village the one on the opposite shore to the right, a sleigh, dragging Robinson some distance in the soft snow. A broken wheel and all the damage sustained.

Samuel Jones is still confined to the bed.

Laura, daughter of Robinson Dean, is quite sick, while the mother and her sister are seeking health in South-Carolina.

A temperance meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening, was addressed by H. Prince, Rev. Mr. Munsion, H. D. Smith and others.

EAST HIRSH.
Mrs. Sarah Swett of Whitefield, N. H., has come to keep house for her brother-in-law, Daniel Pike, and his sister, Hannah Russell, has returned to her home in Lynn.

The schools in town will close this week. The year has been profitable and well attended. The village schools are taught by Emma Perry of Limerick, and Miss Pringle of the town of So. Hirsh. "Four Cup" is a B. Hoag of Bates College and a teacher of the school, and Miss Hattie A. Wiggin.

The Drama "Forced to the Wall" will be presented by Eliza Hargreave at the village on Tuesday evening February 10th. The scenery for this play has been donated by Evie Hanson of this place. The quartette of Kent's Hill Art School.

If you have investments to make you can afford to be without a United States Instructor. See ad.

T. S. Morrison of Cornish, Me., is originator and manufacturer of an automatic tire ice creper. With this machine you can operate a hagle as placed easily on ice as on land. It is adjusted to all tires and runs at the rate per set $3.00. If you want to send 25 cents extra. See ad.

[illegible][illegible]

